NonStop Entertainment takes the Golden Lion winner The Wrestler to Scandinavia

NonStop Entertainment leaves Torontos International Film Festival with Scandinavian distribution rights to Darren Aronofsky's Golden Lion winner and Toronto hit The Wrestler.

During the The Toronto International Film Festival which closed yesterday, NonStop Entertainment acquired all distribution rights to splendid Mickey Rourke comeback The Wrestler for Sweden, Norway, Denmark and Finland from Wild Bunch.

Mickey Rourke stars as the professional wrestler, Randy "The Ram" Robinson in this drama helmed by director Darren Aronofsky. "Rourke creates a galvanizing, humorous, deeply moving portrait that instantly takes its place among the great, iconic screen performances", writes Variety.

The Wrestler won the Golden Lion Award at the recently closed Venice Film Festival and became one of the big hits at Toronto International Film Festival where Fox Searchlight bought American distribution rights to it.

"We are very proud to bring home one of this year's strongest films" says Ignas Scheynius CEO, NonStop Entertainment AB. "For the second year in a row NonStop Entertainment takes both the Golden Lion and the Palm d'Or winner to Scandinavia with The Wrestler and The Class".

NonStop Entertainment also acquired distribution rights to the following Wild Bunch titles at Toronto International Film Festival:

The thriller Vinyan, distributed by Sony in the United States, starring Emmanuelle Béart, Rufus Sewell and Julie Dreyfus. Acquired for Scandinavia and Iceland.

The drama Downloading Nancy from Swedish director Johan Renck starring Maria Bello, Jason Patric and Rufus Sewell. Acquired for Scandinavia and the Baltics.

The drama thriller Afterwards starring Romain Duris, John Malkovich and Evangeline Lilly. Acquired for Scandinavia and Iceland.
